DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-35 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-32 are, drawn to substituted 2,3-dihydro-6-nitroimidazo[2,1]oxazole compounds of formula (I),

(a) where R¹ and -(CH₂)_n together with carbon attached to it form a spiro ring of formula (30).

(b) where R² is (a) to (y) [elect a specific disclosed species].

Applicant is requested to elect a single species for search purposes. This group is subject to further restriction as the group is not an exhaustive list, as it would be impossible to produce such a list under the time constraints due to the large volume of subject matter claimed in this application. Further, applicant must define the exact definition of each substituent on base formula (I), wherein a single member at each substituent group or moiety is selected. For example, if a base molecule has a substituent group R¹, wherein R¹ is recited to be any one of H, OH, COOH, aryl, alkoxy, halogen, etc., then applicant must select a single substituent of R¹, for example OH or alkoxy, and each subsequent variable position.

Group II, claim(s) 33-35 are, drawn to methods of producing compounds of formula (I) and derivatives thereof.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the substituents on compounds of structural formula (I), vary extensively and when taken as a whole result in vastly different compounds as note the various R² substituents ranging from substituted phenyl to substituted indolinyl group. Each group of invention is classified in different classes with a plethora of subclasses. Illustrations to the different inventive concepts may be made by the reference to the Examples of the instant application. Accordingly, unity of invention is considered lacking and a restriction of the invention in accordance with the rules of unity of invention is considered to be proper.

Additionally, the vastness of the claimed subject matter imposes a burden on any examination of the claimed subject matter.

A telephone call was made to Arthur Garret on 4/22/10 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but because of the complexity of the claims, it was agreed to submit the restriction in writing.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder.

All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
